

CALL COMMITTEE SURVEY

Questionnaire

1. We tend to be:

- a. formal and programmatic
- b. informal and spontaneous

2. We welcome ideas that are:

- a. provoking and challenging
- b. tried and true

3. We rely on our Pastor:

- a. for direction and decision-making
- b. facilitating group decision-making

4. We train people to:

- a. minister outside our walls
- b. minister inside our walls

5. We focus on:

- a. Biblical studies and doctrine
- b. contemporary issues and topics

Further questions

1. What do you think is FLC's mission?

- a) Are we doing this?
- b) Do you agree with this?
- c) What can our new minister do to advance this mission?

2. What do you think our pastor's priorities should be in the first year?

- a) What would you be willing to do to actively support our new minister during the first year?

3. What attracts you to attending FLC?

4. Are you active in the Christian education at FLC?

- a) Are you satisfied with the program?
- b) If you are not involved, what would attract you to participate?

5. What emphasis and frequency would you like to see for contemporary and traditional worship styles/services?

6. What are FLC's top three assets/resources?

- a) How can the new pastor enhance and support these assets/resources?
- b) Do you see any new hidden or untapped assets that a new pastor could cultivate?