

FAITH at WORK

October 2022

Friends in Christ,

As you know, I love history. I love learning about the people and events of our past. Some of this is a joy in learning, some of this is a desire to learn from mistakes so they aren't repeated again, some of it is aspiration, a hope of being inspired by events and figures of the past so that they can help me to be a better person today.

When I was in the British Isles in July, the things that moved me the most were old manuscripts of the Bible. And when I say old I mean old. In Dublin I saw on display part of the oldest manuscript of the Revelation, dating to the 200s CE and in London I saw either the oldest (or second oldest) complete codex dating to the 300s CE.

This was moving to me because these texts are where our translations of the Bible come from. When people translate the Bible, they use the oldest surviving texts. It shook me to see these texts - some of the oldest known New Testament texts that we have and realize that these influential for what we believe.

When I ponder my faith, I think of receiving in three general ways. The first is through the God who creates. When I go to the Grand Canyon, I am reminded of a poster that described it as ten thousand cathedrals rolled into one. When I see that, or the night stars, or dew on a spiders web, or the etched edges of a leaf, I am reminded of God's awesome creative power.

The second way God is revealed to me is through people. Through you my friends, and through my family, and pastors and teachers, and those who have over the years showed me, through words and actions God is.

The final way that I know God is through the word. And though parts of it I might question or struggle with, it is through the word, through Genesis and Isaiah and the Psalms and Paul and all of it that I see a God speaking to us. Speaking through the ages, through yellowed pages and voices of people who have gone before us, speaking through human hands that had their own agenda but still speaking, breathing through us.

I write this in October because we typically celebrate the Reformation, we celebrate God's word translated into the language of the people. We celebrate a God who speaks through that which is written down, speaks of a promise to Abraham, David and to all humanity. Be in touch with your faith - whether it be through miracles, or the creation, or worship, or service, or people or the Word. But whatever it is for you, engage and be moved.

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Mark

The Revelation Manuscript is Papyrus 47, you can find more here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Papyrus\_47

The codex is called Codex Sinaiticus (because it was found at St. Catherine's monastery on Sinai) you can see a scan of every page here: <https://www.codexsinaiticus.org/en/>

Council News

Coming together to 'do something' about homelessness

We've all been involved in observations or conversations around the homeless crisis in our country, our state, our own community. Even our church campus is used as a temporary overnight camping site, much to the disappointment of those who cleanup after they have moved on. We lament that 'something' should be done.

We've volunteered to be a small part of the solution. Will you join us?

Together, with our partners – the Oregon Synod, Albany United Presbyterian and St. Alban's Episcopal churches – we will focus our efforts to improve the day room at Albany Helping Hands homeless shelter for adults.

Autumn Fires

In the other gardens
And all up in the vale,
From the autumn bonfires
See the smoke trail!

Pleasant summer over,
And all the summer flowers,
The red fire blazes,
The grey smoke towers.

Sing a song of seasons!
Something bright in all!
Flowers in the summer,
Fires in the fall!

The largest mid-valley homeless shelter

Featuring more than 100 beds, this shelter strives to help adults with individualized plans to move out of their emergency situations and into stable housing with specific goals for a more secure life.

Staff help guests create plans while offering meals, full restroom facilities and safe sleeping arrangements. With this support the guests can seek employment services, pursue needed healthcare, and many of the details we take for granted such as obtaining personal documents, building a resume, finding appropriate clothing for job seekers and connecting to a variety of governmental support agencies for food and other basics.

Six thousand meals are served monthly at this shelter located on east Ninth Avenue. A thrift store and wood lot provide guests with a chance to re-enter the work world and build confidence while supporting the shelter.

The other associated facility is the Bailey Home for mothers with children that offers similar services to help stabilize young families.

The Three Churches Project

Mary Sabatka Gamet is spearheading this venture to refresh and enhance the 'day room' at the shelter. The room is used in a variety of ways – from social to educational – and the faith-based nonprofit has not had the funds or people to focus on the space. Plans call for repairing walls, painting, installing new window blinds and adding bookcases, bulletin boards, coffee tables and miscellaneous furniture.

"We have a $2000 grant from the Synod, FLC is pitching in another $1000, and I've asked the other two churches for $500," says Mary.

Work will happen on Saturday, October 22 with a 9 am start time. The shelter will provide lunch with the residents and work should be completed by 4 pm.

Annual Food Drive—10am-2pm

Saturday, October 15

Faith Lutheran has a long tradition of serving as a collection site for the Annual FISH Food Drive. ## Theology Pub @ The Barn — 6:45pm (Hickory Station in North Albany)

Wednesday, October 19

Theology pub is designed to inspire provocative discussions in a casual setting. This month's topic is Faith, Sexism and Justice.

You might find it interesting to read ELCA's social statement on this that was adopted in 2019 (paper copies are in the narthex). Or you might ponder why did it take until 1970 for Lutheran bodies to ordain women? Why does the Roman Catholic Church still not ordain women? Why do women still only make 82 cents to a man's dollar? And of course with discussions like this: what does it all mean to us?

Community Service Partnership Project

Saturday, October 22

Together, with our partners – the Oregon Synod, Albany United Presbyterian and St. Alban's Episcopal churches – we will focus our efforts to improve the day room at Albany Helping Hands homeless shelter for adults.

Volunteers are needed for repairing walls, painting, and installing new window blinds. There are book cases, bulletin boards, coffee tables and miscellaneous furniture to be set up as well.

Work will begin at 9:00am. The shelter will provide lunch and work should be completed by 4 pm.

Pastor Mark Week Off

Because of our decision to support Pastor Mark at three-quarter time, he takes a week off from church activities each month (other than Sunday morning worship). He will not respond to any non-emergency pastoral care calls on those days.

Caramel Corn Making—9:00am to Noon

Tuesday, October 25

The Bazaar Committee will be making Caramel Corn on Tuesday, October 25, from 9am to 12:00pm. Please join us for this fun (and delicious) endeavor. There are a variety of ways to help out including popping corn, stirring a pot, packaging the finished product for sale, or come for the fellowship. All are welcome.

Sunday Cinema — 2:00pm "The Chosen" (Season 2)

Sunday, October 30

Join us in the Sanctuary to watch the next episode of The Chosen -- Season 2 on October 30 at 2pm.

As we continue following Jesus, we consider what caused people to follow him. Nathaniel is introduced in this episode, who Jesus first sees under a fig tree in John's gospel. As we watch we might consider what caused us to follow Jesus. And what can we do to help others to follow the Lamb of God?

Church Office Hours

10:00am-2:00pm ♦ Monday—Wednesday—Friday

Volunteers Needed!

We have different groups that meet at the church and could use volunteers or help. If your skills could be of assistance here are some areas of need.

- ♦ Worship Leaders: We need assisting ministers, ushers, and video – if you could do one of these tasks once a month, that would be great. Many of you sign up regularly. Thank you for that!
- ♦ Altar Guild: these are the folks who set up the altar every week. Pam Nelson organizes this group, feel free to reach out to her.
- ♦ TOMS: This group does maintenance work around the church. Jon Aaberg heads this group up and would appreciate assistance.
- ♦ Rides: We have some members who would love to come but need a ride to be able to. If you would be willing to pick up one of our members and bring them to church, that would be great.

Prayer Chain: We are asking those who are part of the prayer chain to lift up the concerns of Faith Lutheran congregants on a weekly basis and to pray for other concerns as they are shared. This can be as simple as taking a few seconds to ask God to be with those listed, lifting each one up by name. Peggy Preston will be heading up the prayer chain. If you are interested in being on the prayer chain, send her an email: pegpreston@aol.com

Two weeks until Spirit of Harvest!

A Prayer for Strength

Dear Lord, I come before you and ask for Your strength within me. A strength not of the world but of Your kingdom. Strength to refrain from judgement and feast on love; to push out greed and hold tight to joy. Give me strength, Lord, to dispel pride and rise with humility; to quell anger and rest in self control. Help me to shun greed and rest in giving; to turn from power and embrace service. Show me the way to let go of resentment and rest in peace; to push through fear and walk forward in grace. Lead me to run with faith, soar with forgiveness, and allow your eternal strength to abide with me always. Amen.
