

FAITH at WORK

November 2022

Friends in Christ -

I have enjoyed Halloween a lot more over the last couple years. Mary is at an age where she enjoys dressing up (last year as a princess ballerina for instance) and she of course really enjoys the candy. As I get older, I also find myself thinking of what it is: All Hallowed's Eve, the day before All Saints Day.

Saints are the people that God's light shines through, who reflect God's light and love to the world. Traditionally we speak of various new testament figures, such as St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Lydia as saints. Orthodox and Roman Catholic denominations have processes for declaring someone a saint. The denominations of the Reformation, looking at abuses of saints and relics moved away from this practice. Instead they focused on the priesthood of all believers.

As part of the priesthood of all believers, Luther noted that all of us are saints. Luther used the phrase simul justus es peccator or simultaneously saint and sinner. Part of the Reformation is to recognize not just a few as people who share God's love but to see it in everyone. So All Saints Day, we don't just remember St. Francis, St. Mary or St. Paul, we remember all the people who showed us some of God's love and light.

This All Saints Day, I have been thinking of some of my mentors in faith: pastors, choir directors and Sunday School teachers who preceded me, people who reflected through their words and actions God's love. When we think of the saints - Luther reminds us we don't just think of the people from long ago, we think of those friends in Christ who stirred our hearts and shone God's love to us. We think of them, give thanks for them and shall, at the last, be gathered with them in the great heavenly feast that has no end.

Pastor Mark

Faith in Action

How many Lutherans does it take to update the 'day room' at Albany Helping Hands (AHH)?

Well, at least eleven -- plus five Episcopalians.

In the works since last spring, Mary Sabatka Gamet organized a project to help the largest homeless shelter in Albany and bring together two congregations with funding and people power.

The ELCA Oregon Synod donation plus funding from St. Alban's Episcopal Church and the Faith Lutheran Church Endowment underwrote the costs of paint and supplies, new window coverings, two new bookcases, a large bulletin board and frames for photos of wildlife donated by Allen Norby.

The AHH room is the central eating and social space for residents and drop in guests. Meals are served three times a day. In-between meals, there are make-it-yourself peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and coffee/tea plus fresh fruit when donated.

About 15 tables and 75 chairs are in the room for dining as well as playing board games and using personal computers. A large screen television is used in the evenings for entertainment. The resident building can house approximately 100 adults, many of whom work, attend classes and seek medical and mental services to focus on their life path again. The central offices and a greeter area are adjacent to the day room.

"The shelter is a vital service for our community and we are fortunate to have people willing to work with those who are unhoused," said Mary. "The space was drab and in desperate need for some sprucing up. With the darker days of winter approaching, we hope this encourages the staff as well as the residents -- and communicates that we are supportive of their efforts."

Mary said a young resident named 'Christen' helped with assembling a bookcase and grabbed a paint roller and masterfully painted the hallway to the kitchen. He chatted happily with the crew and shared some of his story.

The other Christians who worked for seven hours to complete the task on October 22: Father Bob Morrison of St. Alban's and four parishioners Elnora (Nonie) Harcombe, Katherine Harkins, Carol Leder and Patty Nordyke; plus, FLC Pastor Mark Bringman, Jon Aaberg, John Berg, Bob Christensen, Gordy Gamet, Mary Sabatka Gamet, Kim Sass, Janice, Jessica and Terry Virnig.

A special thanks to the FLC property committee for preparing the space on the Wednesday before the final work day and Allen Norby for sharing his precious original photos.

"It was an intense day," said Mary, "but we did it in love for our God and homeless adults who are truly on the edges of our society."

Mission Endowment Committee Update

At the Congregational Meeting on December 4th, Carol Olufson, chair of the Mission Endowment Committee, will be asking the people of FLC for their approval of some housekeeping changes the committee has been developing for the group.

“We wanted to clarify our role in support of our mission to support this church, our community and ELCA-linked ministries,” said Carol. “We also have old language that enhances services – like the preschool – that we no longer have.”

Specifically, the committee (that includes Shirley Karstens, Kim Sass and Alice Weber) wants to more clearly define what ‘church operating expenses’ are in the context of what the endowment does not support. Those items the endowment does focus on will be more clearly defined and in some cases combined (such as youth/children’s ministry).

Finally, the guidelines indicate an annual budget process that frankly has not been adhered to in recent years because the endowment is not as active as the originators envisioned.

“This is the first time in 22 years that changes have been proposed,” said Carol. “In early 2023 we will fully report on all our recent activities and disbursements during the annual meeting. We always welcome your ideas and input.”

Copies of the proposed changes will be available in the fireside room on Sunday, November 6, so that you will have an opportunity to read about the changes before the December 4th meeting and make an informed decision.

All Saints Sunday

November 6

The first Sunday of November is the Sunday that we remember all those who have come before us in faith; parents, grandparents, Sunday School teachers, Godparents, Pastors, administrative assistants, church musicians, choir leaders, youth leaders, confirmation mentors, etc. It is a day when we remember that the Holy Spirit binds all the church into one community.

Please email the Church Office if there is anyone you wish to remember in our worship service on that day.

Monday Study Group—1:00pm*October 31, November 7, 14 & 28

We are going to be looking at saints and those that we commemorate in the Lutheran Church. Strictly speaking, we speak of two types of 'saints'. One type includes the people who are specifically mentioned in the New Testament such as Paul, Peter, Mary Magdalene etc. The other type are those that we commemorate. Our denomination does not have a formal rite of beatification but instead celebrates the priesthood of all believers.

We will meet next on October 31st to begin this study. The following link leads to a list of saints and commemorations—find a person that is of interest to you. We will take turns on this day and in November, sharing about saints and their practices. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Calendar\_of\_saints

Theology Pub @ The Barn—6:30pm
(Hickory Station in North Albany)Tuesday, November 15

Theology pub is designed to inspire provocative discussions in a casual setting. This month's topic is Rethinking Church. We will use a one page prompt for our discussion this month as we consider what the difference is between thinking of church as a noun or a verb. Basically, we will be considering the difference between the Great Commission of Matthew 28:16 – 20 (church as verb) and a static church (as a noun).

Pastor Mark's Week Off

November 20—26

Because of our decision to support Pastor Mark at three-quarter time, he takes a week off from church activities each month (other than Sunday morning worship). He will not respond to any non-emergency pastoral care calls on those days. Pastor Joe Medley will lead us in worship on November 20.

Congregational Meeting—11:15am

Sunday, December 4

We have a meeting every last quarter of the year to pass the budget and elect a council. Please join us for worship and then stay for what will (hopefully) be a brief meeting.

Volunteers Needed!

We have different groups that meet at the church and could use volunteers or help. If your skills could be of assistance here are some areas of need.

- ♦ Worship Leaders: We need assisting ministers, ushers, and video – if you could do one of these tasks once a month, that would be great. Many of you sign up regularly. Thank you for that!
- ♦ Altar Guild: these are the folks who set up the altar every week. Pam Nelson organizes this group, feel free to reach out to her.
- ♦ TOMS: This group does maintenance work around the church. Jon Aaberg heads this group up and would appreciate assistance.
- ♦ Rides: We have some members who would love to come but need a ride to be able to. If you would be willing to pick up one of our members and bring them to church, that would be great.

Prayer Chain: We are asking those who are part of the prayer chain to lift up the concerns of Faith Lutheran congregants on a weekly basis and to pray for other concerns as they are shared. This can be as simple as taking a few seconds to ask God to be with those listed, lifting each one up by name. Peggy Preston will be heading up the prayer chain. If you are interested in being on the prayer chain, send her an email: pegpreston@aol.com

Co-Dependence Anonymous

Fridays @ 5:30pm

Co-dependence Anonymous (CoDA) is a twelve step fellowship of men and women whose common purpose is to develop healthy relationships. The only requirement for membership is a desire for healthy and loving relationships.

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

Thank you God for your great love and blessing over our lives. Thank you that your favor has no end, but it lasts for our entire lifetime. Forgive us for sometimes forgetting that you are intimately acquainted with all of our ways, that you know what concerns us, and you cover us as with a shield.

Establish the work of our hands and bring to fulfillment all that you have given us to do in these days. We pray that you would make our way purposeful and our footsteps firm out of your goodness and love. Give us a heart of wisdom to hear your voice, and make us strong by your huge favor and grace. In Jesus' Name, Amen.
